ALCOS WIN INTERCITY AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

First Time in Three Years That the Title Has Come to This City.

ASHER'S SINGLE STARTS RALLY

When Smoke Had Cleared, Four Runs Had Crossed the Plate in the Eighth Inning of Second Game. Richmonders Entertained.

WASHINGTON, September 5.—The Alcos won the amateur baseball championship of Washington and Richmond today by taking the second game of a double-header with the Ninth Street Sunday School team, champions of Washington, by the score of 6 to 2, after having lost the first game by the score of 5 to 2.

This is the first time in the three seasons of the Intercity series that a team representing Richmond has won the majority of games, and while the Washingtonians regretted their loss they complimented the locomotive-builders and Manager W. S. Seamans, Jr., heartily upon his splendid coaching.

The postscript, who finished the first game last Saturday, after the Sunday School boys had lost it, was on the mound in the opening to-day and held the Alcos to six scattered hits, while Sanderson was found for ten hits, which netted four runs in seven innings. Rogerson finished the game.

In the second game, credit must go to Cy Pierce for his splendid trying for the visitors. He gave one base on balls and struck out thirteen batters. The victory came to the Alcos in the eighth inning, after Asher had singled, stole second and scored on Anderson's out to first. With two men down, Amos hit to center, the ball bouncing over the fielder's head, and the shortstop landed on third, Tignor came across with a triple to right. Bigbee, Flannagan and Dowden singled, and the six hits netted four runs.

Bunched hits in the ninth by Asher and Anderson, together with a stolen base by Asher, gave the final run. The Ninth Streeters bunched hits in the eighth frame, and scored two runs. They tried the bunting game in the ninth, Bigbee throwing two of them out at first, and making the third out the same way, after Von Heroult, who relieved Kelly, had fanned and the ball was down.

The two runs of the Alcos in the first game were made in the second and the ninth innings. In the second inning Amos was safe on an error by shortstop, stole second and third, Tignor's out and scored on Bigbee's single. Anderson singled in the ninth inning, went to second on Tinsley's single and scored on Bigbee's safety.

The Ninth Streeters bunched hits in the sixth frame, four hits netted four runs. Rogerson walked two men in the eighth, one being caught out base, roundtree stole second and third, when Asher let a bad throw to second go by him. Asher's holding and base-running, Giovannelli's catch of a foul, and C. Browne's catch of Flannagan's drive, featured the game.

The Alcos and newspaper men, Dr. Price and Secretary Crowder, were entertained to-night by the members of the Washington Amateur Baseball Commission. The scores:
